Dear Mr. Viguerie:

Thank you for asking CIA Director William J. Casey to contribute an article to the Conservative Digest for your 10th anniversary special issue.

Although he is honored to be asked, Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. He has taken a vow of political chastity for the duration. I am sure you understand.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder

Dear Bill:

This May, Conservative Digest will celebrate its 10th anniversary with a special issue, and we want you to be part of the celebration.

Just think of all that has happened in the last 10 years: Ronald Reagan's almost successful challenge for the GOP presidential nomination in 1976 and his historic back-to-back wins in 1980 and 1984 the rise of the New Right and the birth of such powerful organizations as the Heritage Foundation, NCPAC and the American Legislative Exchange Council....

The giveaway of the Panama Canal and the signing of SALT II the end of the Vietnam War and the continuation of the Cold War in Afghanistan, Poland and Nicaragua the first Republican majority in the Senate in 30 years and the struggle to defund the Left the emergence of social issues like abortion, school prayer and busing new national leaders like Jerry Falwell, Jack Kemp and Jeane Kirkpatrick.

We'll look at all of these exciting developments and personalities in our 10th anniversary issue. We'll reprint the best of our contributors (Pat Buchanan, Don Lambro, Joseph Sobran) and offer special features like "Conservative of the Decade" and "Cartoons of the Decade."

A very special section of our issue will be composed of statements by national leaders like yourself, commenting on the last and looking ahead to the next decade. And if you want to include something about the role of Conservative Digest, that will be acceptable, too.

Your statement should be no longer than 70-80 words or less and should be mailed to us c/o Marla Mernin by no later than April 5th.

With deep appreciation for all you have done and continue to do for our nation, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Richard A. Viguerie

The attached from Richard Viguerie was sent to my office for action. However, given the political aspect of this request, I assume that you might prefer to draft a short note to Viguerie yourself.
